

CARPENTRY (CRP)

CRP-1100 Safety and Building Materials (3 Credits)

This course provides an introduction to apprenticeship and industry training as well as the safety legislation that applies to the carpentry trade. Practical applications of safety equipment and procedures will be practiced. Not available for supplemental. Not eligible for Prior Learning Assessment.

Instruction (2.0), Lab (1.0)

Requisite courses: Take CRP-1100L (Required, Concurrent).

CRP-1101 Tools (6 Credits)

In this course, you will be able to identify, describe, and demonstrate the safe use of common carpentry hand tools. Not available for supplemental. Not eligible for Prior Learning Assessment.

Instruction (4.0), Lab (4.0)

Requisite courses: Take CRP-1101L (Required, Concurrent).

CRP-1102 Site Preparation (3 Credits)

Students will explore a variety of foundation and support systems, starting with site preparation and progressing to floor systems. Not available for supplemental. Not eligible for Prior Learning Assessment.

Instruction (2.0), Lab (6.0)

Requisite courses: Take CRP-1102L (Required, Concurrent).

CRP-1103 Res. Estimating & Drawing Interpretation (6 Credits)

Students will interpret drawings and estimate material requirements based on the analysis of the construction drawings. Not available for supplemental. Not eligible for Prior Learning Assessment.

Instruction (3.0), Lab (3.0)

Requisite courses: Take CRP-1103L (Required, Concurrent).

CRP-1104 Practicum Placement (1.5 Credits)

Students will be exposed to the expectations of the job site by working with an industry partner in a two-week Work Integrated Learning opportunity. Not available for supplement. Not eligible for Prior Learning Assessment.

Instruction (2.0), Work Integrated Learning (5.0)

Requisite courses: Take CRP-1104W (Required, Concurrent).