

CRIMINAL JUSTICE - CORRECTIONS DIPLOMA

Program Office: 403.329.7246 • infojustice@lethbridgecollege.ca

Changing Lives, One Conversation at a Time

Are you ready to make a difference in people's lives? If so, a career in Corrections may be for you. In two years, you'll gain the required competencies through courses and experiential learning opportunities in our specialized learning spaces to become an exceptional candidate for a rewarding and challenging career.

Sharing a common first year with students in our Criminal Justice – Policing program, you'll develop key competencies for corrections, including verbal and written communication, teamwork, problem solving and risk management. In your second year, you'll enhance your education by learning principles of behavioural change and other assessment skills.

Graduation

Upon successful completion of all program requirements, students are awarded a diploma in Criminal Justice - Corrections.

Note: Employing agencies may have additional requirements such as a valid driver's license, Standard First Aid and CPR. Learners are encouraged to maintain their credentials in these areas so that they are current at time of graduation.

Dual Diploma Option

Students pursuing Criminal Justice – Policing or Criminal Justice - Corrections diplomas with the School of Justice share a common first year of courses. The common first year design of our justice programming facilitates opportunities for you to start your journey in public safety together with students from the Criminal Justice-Policing diploma. Together, you'll exchange ideas and beliefs, and have an inclusive educational experience that will strengthen relationships and understandings of all branches within the public safety field. Additionally, all students will have the opportunity to learn the ethical framework that should guide the actions of all public safety professionals. The common first year also enables students to take two extra semesters (6 courses) to earn a second diploma in Criminal Justice - Policing from the School of Justice Studies at Lethbridge College.
